RESULTS from Saturday 7th May 2005

U6 RED vs Lidcombe Churches Blue 6 - 2

The Reds played a lot better than last week, everybody putting some good combinations together. Man of the match was Sione Folau.
Goal scorers – Jobby Woetai 3, Sione Folau 2, Lazar Mijatovic 1

U6 WHITE vs Wentworthville Unting 1 – 4

The boys are playing better every week. Jayden Kastrounis was man of the match with Ryan Carder and Adam Mills being two other terrific players of the day.

Goal scorer - Harrison Castles 1

U7 RED vs Lidcombe Churches 1 – 1

The under 7s played a solid game today unfortunately not converting the opportunities that they created for themselves.

Man of the match – Andre Ulavalu Goal Scorer – Ahmed Dbouk 1

U7 WHITE vs Lidcombe Churches Gold 3 - 2

A tight game that was won on solid defence. The lads played well up front with Todd and Reece. Big games from Chamath, Sam and Jason. Great clearing and attack by Matt, Aiden and Brandon kept us on top. Hardest game this season. Player of the match – Aiden Beehag
Goal scorer – Reece Osland 1, Brandon Hamlin 1, Aiden Beehag 1

U7 BLACK vs Rouse Hill Anglican College 1 - 8

Despite the loss this was such a great fun game. We are so proud of our team this week with everyone making an effort to make it, especially since it was a fair way to travel and pretty early. The players were excellent sports and really took what they learned in training and used it on the field. Once again Arthur provided excellent defence. Albion, Arian and Mohamed were great all rounders being wherever they were needed. Anjur and Lucy did a great job in goals. Aid and Fred had good attacks which resulted in Fred scoring our goal. Arbin is our man of the match for good defence and courage. Good work team, we are very proud!

Goal scorer – Fred Maroun 1

U8 vs St Bernadettes Castle Hill 0 - 2

Good stuff first. Wil was player of the match for his never give up defence and determination to not let anyone beat him – ever. Alan again never stopped trying and his balls forward just kept coming. Shayan was very good tackling tenaciously and giving good big kicks towards our forwards and Rongamai is a brick wall, letting noone through. Areas that need improvement – getting ready to play before the game is started, listening to the coach, passing the ball between the forwards, clearing kicks that go towards the forwards from the halves and staying in position – particularly the backs. Big game next week against undefeated Kellyville.

U9 vs Blacktown Uniting 5 - 0

The under 9s played well with the centre halves pushing the opposition into their half and giving the forwards shots at goals. The fullbacks cleared any attacks which breached our centres. The team played well.

Goal scorers – Tony Lo 2, Ahmad Momaud 2, Abobaker Sidiqi 1

U10 vs Lidcombe Churches 10 - 0

The team played confidently and had a bit of fun. With everyone playing different positions, we had the team back each other. Yonja, Phil and Miki played great defence and attack. George was unlucky not to score. George and Emmanuel's onfield partnership kept pressure on the opposition and produced the results. MVP – Emmanuel Eid.
Goal scorers – Shaun Borg 3, Junior Clark 3, Mark Balaz 2, Emmanuel Eid 1, Joshua Joya 1.

U11 vs Lidcombe Churches 0 – 1

A very good effort boys. Again we lost and again it was by the single goal. I am very happy with the new boys, especially Elvis and Parth. Hopefully next week we will win again.

U12 vs St Bernadettes Castle Hill 6 - 2

In the first half we completely outplayed St Bernadettes and went into half time 5 – 0 up. With the game won we changed it around in the second half and allowed the backs to have a run up front. Good games from Joseph, Kyle and Nathan kept them out in the first half and allowed our strikers to take the game away from St Bernadettes. A strong game in goals in the second half earned Dale player of the match.

Goal scorers – Mustafa Nazary 4, Dale Atkin 1, Steven Balaz 1

U13 vs Coverdale Christian School 1 - 2

Firstly a big thank you to Kojo for his time and effort he has put in with the boys. Today was Kojo's last game and we wish him well. Well played boys. 10 players and a super game by Adam Hopper in goals. It was disappointing to see how their goals went in but there was little we could do. The newly appointed coach is in discussion with the club over his big contract and is looking forward to working with the boys.

Goal scorers - Sameer Yusefi 1

U14 vs Lidcombe Churches 2 – 0

Today was a bit of a challenge for the boys and they rose to the occasion. Steven has a sensational game and earned himself man of the match in a hotly contested field. Emad tackled well and cleanly and disposed of the ball thoughtfully. In addition he bagged his first goal for the club. Dylan played a terrific game today tackling with desperation and as usual taking control of the midfield. It was particularly clear that Dylan stepped up for the tougher game today. Well done boys.

Goal scorers – Caner Temel 1, Emad Hallak 1

U16 RED vs Lower Mountains Churches 0 – 5

We had a great game today against a strong and larger team. It was a hard, fast game. Wayne was able to make some great saves with extremely hard balls being kicked at him. Cihan put the ball in the back of the net from a direct free kick but unfortunately it didn't count as one of our players was too quick to run in. John Zhou was player of the match for his consistent effort defending. Thank you to all our wonderful supporters for coming and helping transport our team for yet another away game.

U16 WHITE vs St Columbas Castle Hill 0 – 1

Best game we have played this year. Unfortunately we lost. Not having an official referee again hurt us (there is no disrespect to the ref here – he wrote the report! – ed) Good job nonetheless by the boys.

RC North RESERVES vs Penrith Churches 1 - 3

We put the best reserve grade team we could on the field today – and we still got beaten. The coach is at a bit of a loss. We probably need to play a little more to our strengths particularly in the area of goal scoring. Ahmad is fast and needs the ball early, we can't dribble it all the way to the opposition's penalty box and then expect that our strikers will have room to work. They are also short – keep the ball on the ground. Time to regain the form we were showing just a couple of weeks ago.

Goal scorer – Ahmad Nazary 1

RC North FIRSTS vs Penrith Churches 7 - 0

Great game – no doubt our strongest of the year, with a few key players returning to some form. Moises strength in midfield provided the forwards with some great opportunities. Mirwais was great, filling in from reserves and playing great position and passing the ball – it's not rocket science! Marco played well and Sez continues to be strong. And then there is Ahmad in goals – thrilling saves and good safe hands.

Goal scorers – Greg Wark 2, Jose Quiroga 2, Steve Wark 1, Sez Useinov 1, Mirwais Waseeq 1

RC 1 RESERVES vs St Matthews Baulkham Hills 2 - 1

A very courageous game. The other team put it to us and we met their challenge. Joe had a quiet game in the first half but rose in the second half and helped us in our victory. Great support by our ladies on the sideline. We are very grateful for their colourful and vocal participation.

Goal scorer – Musa Canli 2

RC 1 FIRSTS vs St Matthews Baulkham Hills 2 - 2

A very good side St Matthews. 1 nil down at half time and 2 nil down 20 min in to the second half. We were down but not out. St Matthews sat back and we came home with a wet sail. Could have snatched a win but a very good effort coming from 2 nil down to a 2 all draw. Good to see we never gave up and played strongly to the end. Good game by Matt Verity, Steve Verity and Iain Houlford. Goal scorers – Sindri Bergsson 1, Kari Bergsson 1
