RESULTS from Saturday 13th May 2006

U6 RED vs OLQP Falcons 1 – 0

All the boys are really gelling well together now and thinking about the game and what they are doing. Well done to all the boys. This was a very close game with our goal scored in the first 10 seconds. Isaac Herrera received the encouragement award as he is really focusing on the game. Well done Isaac. Zane Jones was player of the match as his goalkeeping was sensational, saving every chance. Well done Zane.

Goal scorers: Ramey Darwish 1

U6 WHITE vs St Columbas Castle Hill 14 – 0

Wow! What a way to achieve our first win!! With our whole team present, everyone had the energy to play all day. We attacked well spending most of the match in front of our opposition's goal. At half time we were 4-nil up. In the 2nd half after everyone had made an unrelenting barrage of attacks at goal, 10 more goals had been scored. Congratulations boys for a match where everyone played well.

Goal scorers : Zion Woetai 8, Marc Anthony Sarkis 1, Divik Nigam 1, Jordan Kastrounis 1, Christopher Robinson 1, Nathaniel Guzman 1, own goal 1

A very tough and physical game today. The boys played very well against a hard team. Jobby received the coach's award.

Goal scorers: Jobby Woetai 3

U8 WHITE vs Blacktown Reformed 1 – 1

One of the best matches the coach and manager have ever seen. The under 8's had them until late in the second half when our field positioning let us down. A great game by Mitchell (player of the week) and great performances by Samuel Killick and Reece Osland. A fantastic preview of the next round in the knockout when we play them again. Goal scorer – Reece Osland 1

U8 BLACK vs St Michaels Baulkham Hills C 0 – 0

A wholehearted performance from the team today. The searching runs and silky skills of Arbin Zenelaj and Cameron Hunt saw us close to scoring on many occasions. The stoic defence of Bethany Almeida and Prathik Jagadeesh kept the ball heading upfield time and time again. Some thoughtful and disciplined positional play from Krystal Docker and Joshua McGuire kept us in good field position. Boundless enthusiasm from Phillip Taleski, Arthur Maroun, Shaun Rillera and Arian Jahiri saw us pressure the opposition on many occasions. A fine performance from today's captain Anjur Dodwad (he must have cloned himself before the match because he was everywhere). A relatively peaceful day for our keeper Albion Jahiri until the excruciatingly exciting final five minutes when he was required to make several desperate saves to keep our goal unbreached. Brilliant performance team!!!!

U9 vs St Bernadettes Castle Hill Tigers 3 - 1

St Bernadettes gave us a really good game today and despite us hitting the lead early they hit back quickly to keep us all nervous. At half time the score was one all. Throughout the game Marty Woetai was always in position in the midfield, tackling hard and moving the ball back towards the forwards. James Valencia had a very strong game at left back stopping lots of the opposition's attacks. Kerem Sevinc had a good game as did Fred Maroun and Wil Wark played well, at times sweeping and also having a quick run up front where he scored. Daniel Jabou continues to improve each week and is reaping the rewards with his regular goal scoring. All in all this was a solid performance from the 9s. Goal Scorers- Daniel Jabou 1, William Wark 1, own goal 1

U10 vs St Michaels Baulkham Hills 1 - 2

Today the boys improved on last weeks effort. We saw much more contended play but again the opposition made ground down the centre of the field. We need to work on solid strong kicking to push the ball out of our half. We must remember not to hold on to the ball and to push it up the field quickly. We saw solid defensive work and good ball kicking skills from Gonzalo and Nicky "on the ball" in goals when the opposition came attacking both earning MVP. It was unfortunate that the game didn't go a little bit longer as we played really well in the last 10 minutes. Goal scorer – Tony Lo 1

U11 vs OLQP Falcons P 2 – 0

No report Goal scorers – Ben Obulejo 1, own goal 1

U12 vs Carlingford Uniting 3 – 2

Slow start once again but we were always the better team. Quick three goals but then we took it easy and let them back into the game. Goal scorers – Mohamad Rahimi 2, Mohammad Hassanpour 1

U13 vs Lidcombe Churches 2 - 0

It was great to have a full side plus reserves today. Welcome back Christopher and Rodney. One nil first half after a set piece goal. Christopher had some strong runs and was unlucky not to score. We still need to run and back each other up more though. Man of the Match was Anthony. Goal scorers – Dale Atkin 1, Amarvir Singh 1

U14 vs St Columbas Castle Hill 1 - 0

A very difficult game with great defence and excellent goalkeeping. Chances to score were few but eventually a well deserved goal by Kuag. Man of the match was Dia for his spectacular saves. Goal scorers – Kuag Reec 1

U15 vs Kellyville Kolts 4 - 1

This was a fine return to form for our striker, Caner Temel and the team responded by giving him plenty of ball. Caner cut the opposition's defence to pieces and bagged a hattrick. Despite the opposition scoring first we were always the better side and when we started to dominate on the scoreboard, as well as in general play, the floodgates quickly opened up. This was a very important game to keep us in touch with the leaders. Strong games also from Steven Ghadie in the back and Wol Reec up front. Goal scorers – Caner Temel 3, Nawab Rezayee 1

U17 vs St Michaels Baulkham Hills B 1 - 1

We were off to a nerve-racking start. For the first 10 minutes we played one player short – the pressure was on. But this didn't deter us in anyway; the team played the best they had played so far. It was about halfway into the first half when we scored the first goal. We were able to keep the opposition scoreless up until the last 10 minutes when they scored from a corner. Wayne had a great game in goals and Steve's defending was superb. Chris had his best game so far and was 'Man of the Match'. The Referee commented on how good and fast the game was. Goal scorer: Scott Dibley - 1

RC North RESERVES vs Penrith Churches 1 – 3

Bad start as we got one nil down. We have got to play possession football, stop arguing and play as a team. We finished the first half off better and started the second half well, dominating possession and scoring a goal. Well done Mr Jones. But then with some poor defending and little urgency they scored again. Goal scorers – Toby Jones

RC North FIRSTS vs Penrith Churches 2 – 3

The first half was played fast and hard, with both teams playing well. At half time the score was one all. In the second half there was a lot of pushing and shoving. Unfortunately we had a soft penalty awarded against us which put us down 2-3. We were playing good soccer and building up momentum when Kari was hit by a late tackle and seriously injured (broken leg?). Not a good afternoon. Good games by Matt Dixon, Valdi and Kari. Goal scorers – Goksel Ada 1, Joe Yildirim 1

RC 1 RESERVES vs Penrith Churches 2 – 0

The reserves played really well today and despite our horrific injury list including two broken bones and four knees, the guys are really holding together well and scoring some great results, staying up near the top of the comp. Two very fine goals indeed from John and Cuong (his first goal for the club – his little brothers have scored plenty though!) and very solid defence from the Peruvians Ricardo, Juan and Andrew. Ricardo had a really strong game today and Andrew had his best game of the year. A very pleasing result. Goal scorers – John Mastro 1, Cuong Lo 1

RC 1 FIRSTS vs Penrith Churches 5 – 0

Wow! Last round despite dominating possession we were done 0-2. Today we put the mountain men to the sword. Jose Quiroga couldn't miss and Penrith could barely get a shot. Jose continued where the reserves left off with some cracking goals from distance – who said only Gerrard could do it. Even Booph's goal was a very well taken corner by Jose. Let's hope today's man of the match hasn't used up all his good play in the one game. Mirwais stepped up to firsts and was always in position down the right and George and John from the under 17s continue to impress at the back (George playing the full 90 minutes after having played in the morning). Goal scorers – Jose Quiroga 3, Pece Kotevski 1, Steve Wark 1
