Don't forget to check out the website at www.mccredie.org.au/soccer

Check the draw carefully, the u/9 whites , 12s and RCN have had changes to the season draw

The u/12s and 10s have knockouts this Saturday and a number of the youth players have a knockout on Thursday

No training this Wednesday for RC1 squad and there will be a shortened training starting at 6.45pm for the under 16s due to State of Origin.

The six a side washout was very disappointing and financially a big blow to our club. I know how you feel. Some people seemed surprised that games didn't take place on Monday. Remember that the council closed the grounds (not the club or the Association) and that they were closed all weekend. Even if the grounds had been open, how could they have been marked as there was no dry weather to allow this to occur. Remember too that clubs need to have time to cancel sausages, rolls, drink orders etc etc etc. These things require a lot of organisation and it is not possible to see a blue sky one day and say – Let's play!

We have had a couple of instances of poor and unsporting behaviour this year. Remember as both a player and a parent the following code of practice has been signed by yourself when the registration forms was signed. As a club we take this code very seriously and would ask that all members look through it again and ensure that it is upheld at all times. Thanks, Greg
