RESULTS from Saturday 7th August 2010

U6 vs Newington Gunners R

U7 RED vs Bye

U7 WHITE vs St Bernadettes Castle Hill E 1 – 1

Today the mighty 6 all did a fabulous job of turning a 1 nil defeat into a 1 all draw. Oliver in the back line confronted the opposition and had several very good kicks, sending the ball back up the field. Abdallah and William shared the goalie role and both saved many goal attempts. In forward positions, they were effective in attacking St Bernadette's goal. Ryan again was well up to the task of playing sweep defending and showed his attacking skills in centre and forward positions. Lachlan and Mosese played in the forward positions and applied lots of pressure to St Bernadettes. All the boys have shown great improvement since the beginning of the season and help each other in playing as an effective team.. MVP - Oliver Skiller and Goofy award - William Durbidge.

Goal scorer - Mosese Masima 1

U8 RED vs OLOR Kellyville R 5 – 1

A very slow start to the game, we were all over the place, the opposites scored first, I think that when the team woke up and start playing the game. Great defence from Andrew, Michael, Safwan and Herbert. Qais was everywhere helping out, Kenneth, Nedim and Robert tried their best to score goals. Poor Jamal sitting quiet at the other end, not the best game we played, but great win. Player of the match Kenneth Tong. Goal scorers – Qais Sungkar 3, Nedim Fazlic 2

U8 WHITE vs Wentworthville Uniting 4 - 0

We did not play to our best today but we did enough to get the points and keep championship hopes alive. Yousef was terrific and Amit and Vithhegan played well. Arber worked hard and it was good to have Milos back. Player of the match - Yunus Jamil

Goal scorers - Will List 3, Yusuf Jamil 1

U10 RED vs OLOR Kellyville W 1 – 5

No football and the grounds location were big contributing factors in determining this result. We only had 8 at kickoff but the boys dug in deep and looked threatening on the counter, unfortunately we couldn't finish these chances off and we were down 2 nil at the break. By half time we had a full team and went for broke, again we looked like scoring plenty of goals but just couldn't put it away. Big efforts from Jehad, Dominic and Harry in the midfield. Men of the matches were Joel and Marc-Anthony for never giving up at the back. Goal scorer – Luke Fernandes 1

U10 WHITE vs Newington Gunners 0 – 0

It was a game of back and forth. We had our chances but couldn't capitalize on them. Our centres and backs kicked some excellent placed kicks but it just wasn't meant to be. Alibaset and Ehren never gave up all game & chased everything that came their way. We'll have another shot hopefully in the semis/finals. Man of the Match - Alibaset Zafari and Ehren Perera

U11 vs Baulkham Hills 0 – 1

Very close game; it was hard to play against one of the top teams, when we did not have any subs. Great effort though.

Player of the match- Emir

U12 vs Bye

U13 vs Castle Hill United 0 – 1

We needed to win the last two games to get into the semis. We had 12 there for a good warm up and I thought that today we'd go alright. We didn't. Again, like in past weeks, we dominated possession and field position but couldn't find the net. And again, like in past weeks, the opposition get one attack and one goal. There does come a time though when you have to have a look at yourselves and realise that it is not accidental that this happens week after week. Wasted chances up front, sloppy marking at the back and unintelligent plays in between. When we should pass, we hold it; when we should get it down the wings, it gets centred; when we should mark up, we ball watch. On the good side, Aywan played a blinder after the half time rev up and showed what can be done when you compete for every ball and take the match very seriously.

U15 vs Granville Kewpies 5 – 0

A good game but could have been a whole lot better as we must have missed at least 10 shots on goal that should have been put in. We can't afford to miss these easy shots going into the finals. On the up side, we created all those chances through some awesome passing, control of the ball and good calling. Each player in midfield created space for themselves this week, and it payed off with our side having probably 80% of possession. If we can do this over the next few weeks we will set a good platform to score. Everyone played better this week. Standouts were Jordan, Jacob, Jessie, George and a well deserved goal to Kameel. Our backs as always were rock solid as was Emmanuel in goals. Keep up the good work boys. Man of the Match - Junior Clark

Goal scorers – George Elcheikh 2, Kameel Andraos 1, Junior Clark 1, Jeremy Gonzales 1

U16 vs Toongabbie 1 – 2

Goal scorer - Mohamed Rahimi 1
