Grand Finals – Saturday 8th September 2012

Not good news I'm afraid

U11 vs Auburn FC 1 – 6
Goal scorer – Ferdinando Cavasinni 1

U14 vs Lidcombe Churches 1 – 3
Lidcombe played well today, solid all across the park, keeping their positions, supporting each other and defending like demons, shutting down our few plays forward. They were keen. Unfortunately, we were not, and chose the Grand Final to play a very ordinary game. Not marking up and not competing for the ball. we couldn't build our play to go forward. Were we put off by the wind? Were we too cocky? Did the week off hurt? At the end of the day there is no excuse, we just didn't play well today. And if you were like me after the final whistle blew, it felt like your heart had been ripped out of your chest and someone had stomped all over it. But stop, sit back, and think about the year. Yes we lost today's game, but we are still Grand Finalists. We are also League Winners - the best team over 18 rounds. Every player should be proud of their improvement over the year, both as an individual and as part of a team. Greg, Michele and I, as I am sure your parents are, extremely proud of your efforts this year. Well done!
