RESULTS –21st / 22nd April 2012

Ladies vs Rouse Hill Rams 0 - 9

Unfortunately, despite an improved performance on last week, Rouse Hill were too hot today. Katrina, Sarah R, Sarah H and Ania played really well in defence. Sarah Irving was as good as any player on the park in goals and for the second week running our keeper is our player of the match. Now if we could only get them there on the same day! Ania also played really well today defending determinedly and also attacking when the opportunity came. So close to scoring Ania!

RC N Reserves vs Bye

RCN Firsts vs Zim Warriors 4 - 3

This was a very testing match and Zim could go away feeling unlucky. We started on fire and flew away to a 3-0 lead after 20 minutes before Zim could settle. But they did settle and really took control of the game clawing a goal back before half time. In the second half we struggled to control the game although Adem was sensational and consistently tested the Zim defence. McCredie were clinging on though before we conceded a goal and then another. We really hadn't troubled Zim for a while and they were coming home strongly. Then from nowhere a good build up through midfield and a crisp pass from the left to Adem flying through the middle and in the blink of an eye he had clinically finished a goal and Zim's hopes. They could not offer anything in the final 5 minutes. A very good win against one of the stronger sides.

Goal scorers – Virinder Chaggar 2, Adem Stevens 2
