With last week's rain, Guildford McCredie's Premier League team was confirmed as minor premiers. This is a first for our club and a great achievement.

After winning the State Cup and the six a side – there is just one trophy left!

We wish all the guys all the very best of luck in the upcoming semi final series.

No games on the weekend due to the terrible Sydney weather soaking all the fields.

On the 24th though some of our teams competed in the Kings Sevens – the 14s winning it.

Here are a couple of pics from the day
