It was a cold morning when even the eskimos wouldn't come out. We got off to a slow start and weren't working as a team, with everyone following the ball. Curtis got man of the match as he's dedicated, tries hard and always gets to training. John Frankland and Jacob Clark also really stepped up today and had great games. It is expected that everyone will be at training this week.
Goal scorers – Aaron Demirel 5, Ibrahim Ada 4, Claudia Downie 1

U7 Red vs Yaralla Blue 9 - 0

We welcomed back Jason today after a week off with chicken pox and he celebrated his comeback with 3 great goals. Yaralla had no answer to our attack and rarely made it into our half. Zane and William played great games today consistently taking the ball up and scrambling in defence. Junior was his usual dominant self and Damien chimed in with two late individual goals. A very pleasing effort all round guys.
Goal scorers – Junior Clark 4, Jason Youssef 3, Damien Fleming 2

U7 White vs St Michaels Baulkham Hills 2 - 0

Very close game today. The last time we played St Michaels we lost 8-1. This just shows how much the boys have improved in the last month. Sean was terrific as goalkeeper in the second half saving many goals. Jason and Harrison were outstanding in defence. Jake received the encouragement award.
Goal scorers - Dhanushan Sriranjjan 1, Eamonn Davis 1

U9 Red vs Wentworthville Uniting 0 - 1

Today's game against Wentworthville, our top opposition was a tight game. Dharshan's kicks were spot on, whilst Emilio showed good defence in fullback. Nabil was there to help the fullbacks and he received the encouragement award. Well done boys. Sorry to hear Joe is out of action for a few weeks, good luck with your wrist.

U9 White vs Blacktown Reformed 1 - 1

Brilliant performance, well played by all. We would have had the game won if we had switched on at the start and not 10 minutes in to the game. Well played Billy and Terry.
Goal scorer – Cihan Yorulmaz 1

U11 vs OLQP Falcons 0 - 4

A very disappointing scoreline. It seems this year if we go behind we start to play even worse and therefore concede even more goals. This was a very important game for us and Caner, Patrick and John stepped up to the challenge and had exceptional games. Caner was everywhere, tackling, passing beautiful balls to his support and harassing the opposition at every turn. Unfortunately, too often we were let down by slack and/or lazy play from too many of our players. We need to come ready to play, to work as a team and to really put in when the going gets tough.

U12 vs Yaralla 0 - 0

Our second half was better than the first half but, despite several attempts, we did not manage to score. Bassam and Nathan were restricted because of injury but both tried hard. Cihan made several good saves in goal in the first half. Lewis was best player due to his solid and consistent effort throughout the game. Kiril had a good second half even though he was feeling sick. Joshua struggled bravely although still suffering from a cold.

U13 vs Lidcombe Churches 0 - 3

This was a great game. We had an excellent training session on Wednesday and had our game plan set for today but it didn't end up going that way. Once again we had injuries and sickness effect our team. We had two players of the match, Richard for his mighty effort and Erdem for playing so well in his new position. Thankyou to everyone for trying so hard and maybe next week we will all be fit and healthy again. It is nearly killing our injured players to sit on the sideline but hopefully it's the last time. Rest well this week guys.

U14 vs Blacktown Uniting 4 - 2

Every time the opposition scored we showed what we could do, with purposeful passing, good support and clinical finishing. Unfortunately too often we instead argued with each other and decided the best option was to take it ourselves and get tackled. Lets play like we showed we could today and follow the example of Ibrahim, Shamil and Michael who had outstanding games.

Goal scorers – Ibrahim Al Zaidy 3, Shamil Pal 1

Raahauge Cup

Reserves vs Lidcombe Churches 2 - 2

We finished the same number of goals as the opposition today which certainly makes for a pleasant change. If only we could finish more!! Musa's second minute hit was the game highlight and meant he was closely watched from that point on. Wiggers was again strong, Rohit was good and Richard played some nice balls. Goal Scorers- Musa Canli 1, Ricardo Zuniga 1

Firsts vs Moorebank Rovers 2 - 2

The one that got away, surrendering a two goal lead in the final 15 minutes (and both runaways). Pece was outstanding and Marty was in everything. Unfortunately a few guys are now in yellow card trouble and the squad will need to dig deep to cover them whilst they do their time.

Goal scorers – Phil Chan 1, Pece Kotevski 1
