RESULTS Saturday 3/8/02

U6 Red vs Carlingford Uniting
No report

U6 White vs OLOR/St Angelas Kellyville 3 – 2
Really tough game today. Great team effort by the boys since we didn't have any reserves. Everybody put in a bit extra. Good work by both our goalkeepers. Encouragement award – Anthony Elters.
Goal scorers – Emmanuel Eid 1, Ibrahim Ada 1, Anthony Elters 1

U7 Red vs Carlingford Uniting Gold 7 – 0
Even though we couldn't sustain our great form from last week against Lidcombe, the boys still managed to come away with a comfortable win. Rabeh scored his first goal and Geoffrey went very close to scoring also. Our passing let us down a few times and our defence could have been better but the result was never really in doubt. Only three games to go guys, let's try and make them our best games yet.
Goal scorers – Junior Clark 3, Jason Youssef 3, Rabeh El Sayeh 1

U7 White vs St Bernadettes Castle Hill 10 – 1
Great game today. All the boys put in 100% effort, passing the ball and being in the right position. Eamonn and Dhanushan had terrific games scoring 10 goals between them, with Jake and Bilal nearly scoring several times. The best player award went to Jake.
Goal scorer - Eamonn Davis 7, Dhanushan Sriranjjan 2, own goal 1

U9 Red vs OLOR/St Angelas Kellyville G 2 – 0
Today's game was a bit of a change, with the boys playing in different positions. A good save by Rammy in goals and a good attempt at goal by Emilio. Nathan had several attempts at goal. A great goal by Amarvir, then another great goal by Nabil. The encouragement award went to Nathan Borg. Well done boys.

U9 White vs OLOR/St Angelas Kellyville B 0 - 3
Playing the competition leaders and the real difference was our lack of concentration. We played extremely well in bits but we needed to 'wake up' straight from the kick off. Once again Cihan, Wahid and the brilliance of Abdul in goals kept us in there. If we just worked as a team we'd be a whole lot stronger. Simple things like holding positions and words of encouragement would mean a big change in our results.

U11 vs OLOR/St Angelas Kellyville 3 – 1
It makes a huge difference when we don't score early. We couldn't score at all in the first half and this encouraged Kellyville to keep trying hard and forced us to knuckle down and earn our win. This we did with two well worked second half goals and a well taken penalty after some sustained pressure. Rabur was player of the match, with Chafic and John Paul both also playing strongly. A big game next week against the competition leaders.
Goal scorers – Caner Temel 2, Sam Barrett 1

U12 vs Blacktown Reformed 0 – 5

We were outclassed by a far better team on the day, particularly in the second half. Our play lacked purpose with kicks going just anywhere and not being passed to another player on our team. Everyone tried hard but we had too much of the ball in our back line and not enough in attack.

U13 vs Penrith Churches F 4 – 2

This was one of our most enjoyable games of the season. It was good to see the team working together. We missed George today and hope his back is better. Lots of fun, smiles and sportsmanship was seen on the field today, let's keep it up for the last three games. Toni was our player of the match, Remzi and Wayne received the encouragement awards. We wish Erdem's mum and sister a safe and happy holiday in Turkey.

Goal scorers – Jasvinn Singh 1, Bilal Ghonim 1, Toni Strasshofer 1, own goal 1

U14 vs Blacktown Uniting 0 - 3

Well, after last week's brilliant effort, this game was a great disappointment. A very bad loss when we can play so much better. We must remember that this is a TEAM game.

Raahauge Cup Reserves vs Chester Hill Sports 2 – 4

A few positional changes for the guy's last game and for the majority of the game McCredie led the more fancied Chester Hill. Great to see Scuba bag a goal, he'd been saying all year that for the last game he wanted to play up front and he did it very well. Thanks for a great season guys.

Goal Scorers- Rabie Nammour 1, Brendan Deppi 1

Firsts 2 – 6

They beat us today by the same margin we beat them by in the first round. In the end despite the strong side we fielded today the disruption of the past few weeks probably affected our performance. As it turned out results elsewhere meant we couldn't have made the semis anyway, but we didn't know that until after. Commercial Hotel 7pm Saturday 11/8/02 ribs and season debrief.

Goal scorers – Nick Creer 1, Pece Kotevski 1
